

What are primary immunodeficiencies (PIDs)?

PIDs are a group of over 450 rare, chronic conditions that affect how the body's immune system works.

People affected have parts of their immune systems missing or not working.

scan me with your phone camera

